GEORGIA BASEBALL ON THE INTERNET/RADIO/TV

Fans wishing to follow all the action of the 2022 University of Georgia baseball season can tune in to The Georgia Bulldog Sports Network and online at georgiadogs.com. The Georgia Gameday LIVE Mobile app (georgiadogs.com/wireless/) is another option as well as SEC Network+ for selected games.

As part of the Georgia Bulldog Sports Network from Learfield IMG College, Georgia baseball games will be heard locally on WRFC 960 AM or WGAU 1340 AM. WRFC 960 will serve as the primary home for all broadcasts. WRFC 960 is also the flagship station for Lady Bulldog Basketball. In the event there is a timing conflict between women's basketball and baseball, women's basketball will air on 960 AM The Ref and baseball will air on WGAU 1340 AM.

The veteran Bulldog team of Jeff Dantzler and David Johnston will serve as announcers on the broadcasts. All games will be produced through the Learfield IMG College in Winston Salem, N.C. Fan can listen to every game free online through georgiadogs.com. Also, Georgia baseball home games not selected for cable television will have live streaming video available on georgiadogs.com. Matt Stewart and Jason Jacobs return again this season to call most of the action for games televised at Foley Field on SEC Network+.

CREDENTIALS AND PARKING: All requests for working press, radio, television or photographer passes should be made to Christopher Lakos, Sports Communications as soon as possible prior to game day. The capacity of the press box may be limited in 2022 due to the ongoing pandemic. For more information, call: (706) 542-1621; E-Mail: clakos@sports.uga.edu.

Credentials may be picked up at the Will Call Window at the front gate of Foley Field. With ample parking available in the commuter lot and parking deck behind left field, no parking passes are issued.

INTERVIEWS AND PRACTICE: Please contact Christopher Lakos in the Sports Communications office (706) 542-1621 for interview requests. Georgia players and coaches will be available after selected practices and each game following a brief cooling off period. Field access may be available during the 2022 season.

PRESS BOX SERVICES/WIRELESS INTERNET: NCAA box scores, rosters and media guides will be available to working media digitally. For wireless internet login info, please see a member of the SID staff.

STILL AND TV PHOTOGRAPHERS: Accredited pool photographers will be allowed to shoot in the designated camera wells by first and third base pending the ongoing pandemic. The areas in front of the dugout, inside the dugout and around home plate are off limits.

TELEPHONES: Telephones in the press box for the working media are available If you need a phone line installed, please contact AT&T online at www.att.com or call 1-800-288-2020 or 1-877-253-0009. When ordering lines, the street address which should be given is Foley Field, 1 Rutherford Street, Athens, Ga., 30603. For repair and technical support, call 1-877-737-2478.

TELEVISION: A television booth is located in the press box and camera platforms for home plate, high first base, low first base, low third base and centerfield positions are in place.

TOBACCO POLICY: In keeping with UGA policy, the entire seating area and press box of Foley Field has been designated as a tobacco-free area.

VISITING RADIO: A courtesy phone line and Internet access are provided from the press box booth marked "Visiting Radio."

Veteran Team Aims For Postseason Run

Georgia welcomes back eight returning starters around the diamond including Freshman All-SEC Corey Collins.

The 2022 version of the Georgia Bulldogs will feature perhaps the deepest and most talented roster in quite some time, according to Ike Cousins head baseball coach Scott Stricklin. The Bulldogs welcome back 29 returning lettermen including eight starting position players and 13 pitchers who logged innings a year ago.

The Lineup

With everyone in the starting lineup returning from 2021 except the versatile Riley King who graduated, the Bulldogs will field one of the most experienced lineups in the country. Georgia hit .270 with a .413 slugging percentage and a .346 on base percentage in 2021. They fielded .977.

After spirited competition in fall workouts, the projected 2022 Opening Day lineup should feature the following:

C: Fernando Gonzalez, Soph., (.254-2-13, .343 SLG%, .275 OB%)
1B: Parks Harber, Soph., (.248-3-19, .376 SLG%, .331 OB%)
2B: Cory Acton, Sr., (.250-0-10 in 60 AB, .283 SLG%, .438 OB%)
SS: Cole Tate, Graduate, (.319-2-20, .395 SLG%, .379 OB%)
3B: Josh McAllister, Sr., (.333-9-20, .562 SLG%, .382 OB%)
LF: Connor Tate, Graduate, (.344-10-33, .545 SLG%, .405 OB%)
CF: Ben Anderson, Graduate, (.206-4-17, .352 SLG%, .326 OB%)
RF: Chaney Rogers, Graduate, (.278-4-32, .402 SLG%, .356 OB%)
DH: Corey Collins, Soph., (.283-8-37, .487 SLG%, .382 OB%)

Pitching

Junior right-hander Jonathan Cannon, a preseason All-American, and sophomore left-hander Liam Sullivan will anchor the rotation. Cannon (4-2, 3.98 ERA), a projected premium draft pick again this year, made 12 starts in 2021. Sullivan (1-2, 3.99 ERA) proved to be an effective weekend option when he got an opportunity down the stretch in 2021.

There are numerous candidates to join them while Jaden Woods (4-1, 4.58 ERA, 1 SV) earned Freshman All-SEC honors as a steady presence at the backend of the bullpen last year.

Veteran right-handers Garrett Brown and Will Childers return after missing last season due to injury plus a trio of newcomers in junior Dylan Ross, sophomore Davis Rokose and freshman Coleman Willis look to make an impact. A slew of experienced relievers return in Jack Gowen, Nolan Crisp and Michael Polk while Luke Wagner was among eight freshmen who made their collegiate debut last year.

The Schedule

Georgia's 56-game schedule features 33 contests at Foley Field. The 30-game Southeastern Conference slate brings defending national champion Mississippi State to Athens for the SEC opener in mid-March. Florida, Texas A&M, Vanderbilt and Missouri visit as well. Georgia's SEC road trips will take them to Kentucky, South Carolina, Alabama, LSU and Tennesee.

The Bulldogs will play a three-game series with in-state rival Georgia Tech and a two-game set with Clemson to highlight the non-conference action. The series with Tech will be single games on campus and the final one at Coolray Field in Lawrenceville.

The top 12 teams in the league will advance to the SEC Tournament slated for May 24-29 in Hoover, Ala. NCAA Regional and Super Regional action gets underway in June, and the final eight teams standing will battle it out at the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., from June 17-27.

The Preseason Rankings

Georgia checked in at No. 14 in Baseball America's Preseason Top 25 rankings and No. 16 in the D1Baseball Preseason Top 25. The Bulldogs were one of eight SEC teams in the top 25 of the polls.

Scott STRICKLIN

Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach
9th Season at UGA
18th overall as a head coach
(Kent State '95)

#10

Georgia's Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin has returned the Bulldogs to one of the top programs in the country. In April of 2021, he agreed to a contract extension through 2026. The 2022 season will mark his ninth year with the program and 18th overall as a head coach.

The 2021 team spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. The Bulldogs lost four of their top five pitchers during the year. Still, Georgia went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. The Bulldogs played four teams that were ranked No. 1 at one point during the year and managed to go 13-17 in the SEC to earn a No. 8 seed for the conference tournament. Georgia went 1-2 with a win over LSU at the SEC Tournament and ended the season with a 31-25 record.

Outfielder Connor Tate earned ABCA/Rawlings All-South Region second team honors while catcher/designated hitter Corey Collins and pitcher Jaden Woods were named Freshman All-SEC by the league coaches. Woods earned second team Freshman All-America honors by Perfect Game/Rawlings. Also of note, nine Bulldogs on the 2021 club earned their degree, and a school record 27 Bulldogs made either the Spring SEC Academic Honor Roll or the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll, eclipsing the mark of 26 set in 2020.

The Bulldogs have had 32 players drafted in the Stricklin era including 14 in the top 10 rounds. Pitchers Emerson Hancock (2020) and Robert Tyler (2016) were first round draft picks. Also of note, first baseman Jared Walsh, who was a 39th round pick in 2015 by the Los Angeles Angels, was named to the 2021 MLB All-Star Team.

Georgia was one of just two schools to have earned a top eight National Seed for the NCAA Championships in both 2018 and 2019. Georgia was a No. 8 seed in 2018 and a No. 4 seed in 2019, which marked the best in school history. Then in 2020, the Bulldogs were poised to have a special year, selling out its season tickets, when the COVID-19 pandemic hit.

Georgia finished 2020 ranked as high as No. 2 nationally (USA Today Sports Top 25). The Bulldogs had jumped out to a 7-0 start, swept rival Georgia Tech for the third time in the past four years and tallied a 14-4 mark when the season was canceled. Four Bulldogs signed professional contracts including Hancock (1st Round, sixth overall) and a then school record 26 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll. Georgia was the only SEC program to rceive NCAA APR recognition, 10 Bulldogs earned a degree, and the program posted a record 3.14 GPA for the spring. Hancock was just the fourth student-athlete in school history to be both a first round draft pick and first team Academic All-American.

Since arriving at UGA, Stricklin, 49, has created an atmosphere of excitement around the program, starting with the current student-athletes, extending to former lettermen and to Georgia baseball fans around the state. He has organized numerous lettermen functions to help reunite former players and steered the $12 million Foley Field Revival project that was completed prior to the 2015 season. He has engaged the fan base with the annual First Pitch banquets featuring Hall of Famers John Smoltz, Phil Niekro and Chipper Jones, former Atlanta Braves standout Jeff Francoeur along with Bulldog legends and Major Leaguers Gordon Beckham and Kyle Farmer. A total of more than 83,000 fans packed Foley Field during the 2019 campaign, the most since 2009 when a modern era record of more than 93,000 cheered on the Bulldogs.

The Bulldogs posted one of their best regular seasons in school history in 2019, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the Southeastern Conference. Then, Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons. Also, it was only the third time for the program to make back-to-back NCAA Regionals. Georgia finished the 2019 season with a 46-17 record, and the win total was the fourth most in school history while the 42 victories during the regular season was the second most. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs established a school record for Fielding Percentage (.980).

Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation while junior Cam Shepherd received a Gold Glove for his play at shortstop from ABCA/Rawlings. Schunk and Hancock were consensus All-America selections. Eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract. Georgia continued to excel in the classroom with 19 earning a spot on the SEC Academic Honor Roll and pitcher Tim Elliott making the Academic All-District team.

Georgia's recruiting classes have improved under Stricklin, according to Perfect Game USA national rankings. In fact, the class that made its debut in 2017 was ranked No. 3 nationally. Also, the Bulldogs have excelled in the classroom including posting a 3.08 GPA for the fall semester of 2016 and a record 23 Bulldogs landing on the 2018 SEC Academic Honor Roll.

The 2018 campaign saw Georgia return to prominence, earning a top eight national seed and playing host to an NCAA Regional for the first time in a decade. After being picked to finish fifth in the Eastern Division, Georgia posted an overall record of 39-21 and its 18-12 SEC mark tied for the second best in the league. The Bulldogs would reach the finals of the NCAA Athens Regional and set four school records (.979 fielding percentage, holding opponents to a .236 batting average, 532 strikeouts by the pitching staff and seven grand slams by the offense). Three Bulldogs earned All-America honors, four made the All-SEC squad, 23 made the SEC Academic Honor Roll and three were selected in the 2018 MLB Draft. In 2017, the Bulldogs advanced to the SEC Tournament after claiming series over then No. 4 Kentucky and No. 6 Miss. State.

Stricklin helped organize the first game open to the public at SunTrust Park to benefit Children's Healthcare of Atlanta as the Bulldogs faced Missouri. The crowd of 33,025 at SunTrust was the second biggest in college baseball history. A month later, Georgia returned to SunTrust for the 15th annual Spring Baseball Classic For Kids and defeated Georgia Tech in front of nearly 24,000 to sweep the season series for the first time since 1984.

In 2016, Georgia endured a school-record 22-game stretch against ranked opponents as it concluded the regular season with the nation's toughest rated schedule. They posted key series wins over then No. 2 South Carolina, marking the highest series victory for Georgia since 2001, and over rival Georgia Tech. Georgia had six players selected in the MLB draft including first round lottery selection Robert Tyler by Colorado. In year two of the Stricklin era, the Bulldogs posted their first SEC road sweep since 2009 when it won three straight over Tennessee and then claimed its first league series at No. 7 South Carolina since 1994. In May, Georgia combined on a one-hit shutout of Georgia Tech at Turner Field in front of the largest crowd to see a college baseball regular season game as 18,792 attended the 13th annual Spring Baseball Classic For Kids.

Georgia battled through the 2015 season while missing two members of its starting rotation and two bullpen arms for a significant stretch. Still, the Bulldog staff posted a sub 4.00 ERA for only the second time since 1977. When at full strength, the bullpen was a formidable group, allowing just one earned run over the final 29.2 innings of 2015. Georgia had seven players selected in the 2015 MLB draft, which marked the most since 2011.

The Stricklin Family
Scott, Sydney, Cheri, Keaton and Cale

In Stricklin's first year at Georgia, he led the Bulldogs back to the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2012. Georgia compiled an 11-game wining streak during the season, and it captured a series over No. 7 South Carolina, the first over a top 10 team since 2011. Three Bulldogs signed professional contracts.

Stricklin, who led his alma mater Kent State to five NCAA Regionals and the 2012 College World Series, was named head baseball coach at the University of Georgia on June 3, 2013. During a nine-year stint with the Golden Flashes, he posted a 350-188 record, winning five Mid-American Conference regular season crowns and five MAC Tournament titles. Known for developing student-athletes on and off the field, 30 KSU players were selected in the Major League Baseball draft during his tenure, and from 2010-12, the team registered a perfect 1,000 score in the NCAA's Academic Performance Rate (APR) report. KSU was one of only 16 schools in the country to reach this academic accomplishment and the only public institution on the list. Also, the Golden Flashes were honored in Omaha in 2012 for having the highest team Grade Point Average (GPA) of all the eight participants at the College World Series (CWS), owning a 3.09 GPA.

Stricklin earned his first head coaching job in July of 2004 when he returned to Kent State following three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgia Tech under former KSU head coach Danny Hall. Stricklin directed Kent State to its finest season in school history in 2012 as the Golden Flashes posted a record 47 victories including a 21-game winning streak and their first trip to the CWS. The Golden Flashes went on the road and won the NCAA Gary (Ind.) Regional and then upset No. 5 national seed Oregon in a Super Regional in Eugene. At the CWS, they eliminated top-ranked Florida and finished tied for fifth. KSU wound up with a final national ranking of No. 5, the highest ranking in team history.

Stricklin, a two-time All-Mid-American Conference catcher, handled pitching staffs that were ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the nation in earned run average during his final two playing seasons at KSU. A 23rd round draft pick of the Minnesota Twins in 1993, he played five seasons of professional baseball and reached the Triple-A level with the Twins. Stricklin graduated magna cum laude with a bachelor's degree in marketing from Kent State in 1995. He and his wife Cheri have three children: daughters Sydney (19) and Keaton (14), and a son, Cale (17).

Scott DAELEY

Assoc. Head Coach
Hitting/Recruiting Coord.
9th Season at UGA
(Wake Forest '02)

#37

Associate head coach/recruiting coordinator Scott Daeley enters his ninth season with the University of Georgia baseball program. Daeley, 44, serves as Georgia's hitting coach, works with the outfielders and is the third base coach.

The 2021 team spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. The Bulldogs went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. The Bulldogs earned a No. 8 seed for the SEC Tournament and went 1-2 with a win over LSU to end the season at 31-25. Catcher Corey Collins was named to the SEC's All-Freshmen Team.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. Junior outfielder Tucker Bradley and senior shortstop Cam Shepherd signed as free agents as the MLB Draft was shortened to just five rounds due to the pandemic.

The Bulldogs posted one of their best regular seasons in school history in 2019, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the Southeastern Conference. Then, Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons. Also, it was only the third time for the program to make back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances. Georgia finished the 2019 season with a 46-17 record, and the win total was the fourth most in school history while the 42 victories during the regular season was the second most. For the second straight year, the Bulldogs established a school record for Fielding Percentage (.980). Georgia hit 75 home runs including a school record eight grand slams.

Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk, a second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies, was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation. Junior Cam Shepherd, a 20th round selection of the Tampa Bay Rays, received a Gold Glove for his play at shortstop from ABCA/Rawlings. Schunk and pitcher Emerson Hancock were consensus All-America selections to highlight the Bulldog individual honors from 2019. A total of eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract. Also of note, Hancock and freshman pitcher Cole Wilcox garnered USA Collegiate National Team summer invitations.

The 2018 season marked Georgia's finest in a decade. The Bulldogs went 39-21 overall, 18-12 in the SEC, earned a No. 8 national seed for the NCAA Tournament, advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final and finished with a consensus top 25 ranking. Georgia's .282 batting average was its best since 2010, and the 64 home runs, including a school record seven grand slams, was the most since a record 109 in 2009. In August of 2018, Daeley was promoted to associate head coach/recruiting coordinator.

Two Bulldog hitters were 2018 MLB draft picks in ninth round selection Keegan McGovern (Seattle) and 16th rounder Michael Curry (San Diego). McGovern, a four-year starting outfielder, was a Third Team All-American while Curry, a three-year starter at DH/C/OF, made Second Team All-SEC. Schunk garnered Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA as a utility player.

In Daeley's first season, Georgia's highlights included returning to the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2012 and two Bulldog hitters being selected in the Major League Baseball (MLB) draft. Shortstop Nelson Ward was a 12th round pick while outfielder Hunter Cole was drafted in the 26th round. In 2015, the Bulldogs had two hitters sign professional contracts in catcher Zack Bowers and first baseman Jared Walsh. In 2019, Walsh made his Major League debut with the Los Angeles Angels. In 2016, Georgia returned to the SEC Tournament, and three hitters signed professional contracts highlighted by sixth round draft pick Stephen Wrenn.

Assistant Coach, Kent State, 2005-2013
Assistant Coach/Recruiting Coord., Georgia, June 2013-July 2018
Assoc. Head Coach/Recruiting Coord., Georgia, Aug. 2018-present

In the area of recruiting, Daeley has steadily improved Georgia classes according to the Perfect Game USA national rankings, going from No. 26, to No. 22 and now No. 3 for the incoming class from 2017.

Daeley arrived at Georgia from Kent State in June of 2013 where he was a member of Scott Stricklin's staff for nine years. As the hitting coach at KSU, Daeley helped develop 30 All-Mid-American Conference position players, three MAC Players of the Year and six All-Americans. He was a part of the KSU program that made five NCAA Regional appearances highlighted by the 2012 College World Series.

A total of 36 Flashes were selected in the Major League Baseball Draft from 2005-13 including 26 during his final five seasons at KSU. After the 2012 season that saw the Flashes reach the College World Series, Baseball America went back and re-ranked the recruiting classes from 2008 and ranked the Golden Flashes as having the ninth best class. The 2006 class was ranked by Baseball America as the No. 17 class in the country becoming the first Mid-American Conference program to be included in their recruiting Top 25.

Daeley served as a volunteer assistant for two years at Wake Forest after playing three years in the San Francisco Giants organization. Daeley played center field and batted leadoff for the Demon Deacons in 1998 and 1999 and was the catalyst for back-to-back Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament Championship teams. He earned second team All-ACC honors in 1999 with 27 doubles and 83 runs scored, the second most in a single season in Wake Forest baseball history.

A 31st round draft pick of the Giants following the 1999 season, Daeley played with Shreveport, San Jose and Salem-Keizer. Daeley came to Wake Forest from Cypress Junior College in California where he hit .350 and ranked among the school's all-time leaders with 98 runs scored and 43 stolen bases.

A native of Orange, Calif., Daeley received a business degree from Wake Forest in December 2002. Scott and his wife, Alison, have two daughters, Sloan (13) and Paige (12).

Sean KENNY

Asst. Coach/Pitching
5th Season at UGA
(Eastern Michigan '97)

#40

Since joining the Bulldogs in June of 2017, Sean Kenny has made a dramatic impact with the program, helping Georgia to a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances as national seeds, top 25 rankings and establishing school records by the pitching staff. In July of 2021, Kenny received a three-year contract extension.

The 2021 team spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. The Bulldogs lost four of their top five pitchers during the year with freshmen accounting for 52 percent of the starts and 44 percent of the innings pitched. Still, the staff held opponents to a .226 batting average and tallied 570 strikeouts, and both of those marks rank second best in school history. The Bulldogs went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. The Bulldogs earned a No. 8 seed for the SEC Tournament and went 1-2 with a win over LSU to end the season at 31-25. Pitcher Jaden Woods was named a Freshman All-American by Perfect Game/Rawlings along with Freshman All-SEC by the league coaches. Pitchers Ryan Webb (4th Round, Cleveland) and Ben Harris (8th Round, L.A. Dodgers) were drafted in 2021.

Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked as high as No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. The pitching staff had a 2.52 ERA and held opponents to a .206 batting average. The team featured junior Emerson Hancock, who went sixth overall in the first round of the 2020 MLB Draft to Seattle, and Cole Wilcox, who received a record signing bonus from San Diego as a third round selection. The duo combined to sign for $9 million. The top newcomers were Cannon and Will Childers, both named a Freshman All-American.

The Bulldogs posted one of their best regular seasons in school history in 2019, going 42-14 including a school record 21-9 in the Southeastern Conference. Then, Georgia advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament and played host to another NCAA Regional as a top eight National Seed. This was the first time in school history that Georgia served as an NCAA host site as a National Seed in back-to-back seasons. Also, it was only the third time to make back-to-back NCAA Regional appearances.

Georgia finished the 2019 season with a 46-17 record, and the win total was the fourth most in school history while the 42 victories during the regular season was the second most. The pitching staff set school records for strikeouts in a season with 601 and an opponent's batting average of .200 that was the lowest in the SEC. Also, the squad's 3.24 ERA was the second best in school history, trailing only the 1958 team mark of 2.97. Additionally, the team tallied 19 saves and allowed just 235 runs, both marks that ranked second best in school history.

Junior third baseman/closer Aaron Schunk, a second round draft pick of Colorado, was named the 2019 John Olerud Award recipient as the nation's top two-way player by the College Baseball Foundation. Schunk and Hancock were consensus All-America selections to highlight the Bulldog individual honors. A total of eight Bulldogs were selected in the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft with six opting to turn professional and another signing a free agent contract. Pitcher Tony Locey, a third round pick of St. Louis, went 11-2 to become Georgia's first 11-game winner since 1990. Pitcher Tim Elliott, a fourth round pick of Seattle, made the Academic All-District team from Google Cloud/CoSIDA while pitcher Zac Kristofak was taken in the 14th round by the Angels. Also of note, Hancock and Wilcox garnered USA Collegiate National Team summer invitations.

In his first year with the Bulldogs in 2018, Kenny's influence with the pitching staff helped Georgia post its finest season in a decade. Georgia went 39-21 overall, 18-12 in the SEC, earned a No. 8 National Seed for the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Athens Regional Final. Georgia's team ERA of 3.97 was 1.05 runs lower compared to the 2017 squad, and the staff established a school record by holding opponents to a .236 batting average while tallying 532 strikeouts. The team leader in wins, junior Kevin Smith (8-1, 3.69 ERA), signed as a seventh round draft pick of the New York Mets. Schunk garnered Third Team All-America honors from the NCBWA as a utility player. He was one of three finalists for the John Olerud Award. Also, pitcher/outfielder C.J. Smith was named a Second Team Freshman All-American by the NCBWA.

A native of Ann Arbor, Mich., Kenny came to Georgia after five seasons at the University of Michigan where he served under the direction of Erik Bakich. The Wolverines finished the 2017 season with a 42-17 mark and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championships. The 2017 pitching staff led the Big Ten with a 3.46 Earned Run Average (ERA) and 562 strikeouts while limiting opponents to a .231 batting average. Oliver Jaskie and reliever Jackson Lamb were named to the All-Big-Ten first team while Tommy Henry made the conference All-Freshmen team.

Kenny came to Michigan after spending three seasons with Bakich at the University of Maryland where he worked as the Terrapins' pitching coach. Overall, the Terrapins had eight players drafted including six pitchers during that three-year stretch.

Prior to going to Maryland, Kenny spent six seasons as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator at Pepperdine under Steve Rodriguez. He helped guide the Waves to five NCAA Regional appearances and three West Coast Conference (WCC) titles. Before heading to Pepperdine, Kenny worked at the University of San Diego where he served as the pitching coach and recruiting coordinator on Rich Hill's staff from 1999-2003. He helped USD to West Coast Conference titles in 2002 and 2003. One of his standout players was 2002 WCC Pitcher of the Year and third team All-American Ricky Barrett. A total of 12 Toreros including three pitchers were selected in the MLB draft during his stint at San Diego.

Kenny began his coaching career as a volunteer assistant at Saint Mary's College in Moraga, Calif., in 1997, working with the outfielders. He landed his first full-time coaching position at Laney Community College in Oakland, Calif., where he served as pitching coach in 1998.

Kenny is a graduate of Eastern Michigan where he earned All-Mid-American Conference honors as a pitcher for the Eagles. He was a 17th round selection of the New York Mets in 1993 and played three seasons of professional baseball. He earned a bachelor's degree in literature from EMU in the fall of 1997 and a master's in physical education from Saint Mary's in 2000.

Brock BENNETT

Asst. Coach
3rd Season at UGA
(Alabama '10)

#45

Atlanta native Brock Bennett joined the Georgia Bulldog baseball staff as the volunteer coach in July of 2019.

During his time with the Bulldogs, Bennett has been working with the catchers, infielders and serving as the first base coach. Also, he is in charge of on-campus recruiting and assisting in the coordination of camps.

The 2021 Bulldogs spent 11 weeks in the nation's top 25 rankings and reached as high as No. 5 before a slew of injuries eventually took its toll on the club. Still, Georgia went 8-14 against top 10 ranked teams including a winning a road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt, which marked the Commodores only home series loss. Georgia was poised to have another memorable season in 2020 when the campaign ended after 18 games due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Bulldogs finished the year ranked No. 2 nationally with a 14-4 record. Along with working at Georgia, his experience includes stops at Georgia State, his alma mater Alabama plus Georgia Perimeter (GPC).

Bennett began his coaching career by spending three years as an assistant at GPC under Brett Campbell and Jeremy Brotherton while helping the Jaguars win a pair of region titles. He coached the first-team all-conference catcher all three years, and four GPC players were drafted during his time there. Then, he was named the volunteer coach at Georgia State (GSU) on Greg Frady's staff. He helped develop catcher Nick Gatewood, who went on the become an 11th-round draft pick of the San Diego Padres in the 2018 MLB Draft. He joined Brad Bohannon's Alabama staff in 2017-18. He came to Georgia after spending the 2019 season as an assistant coach at GSU. He directed the Panther offense and worked with the infielders.

A graduate of Greater Atlanta Christian, Bennett was a catcher/infielder at Alabama (2007-11), where he posted a .314 career batting average while starting more than 100 games, including 97 starts behind the plate. He saw action at third base and second base too while setting a single season (21) and career mark for sacrifice bunts (28). As a senior, he batted .338 with 22 RBI and 39 runs scored plus a team-high .992 fielding percentage. During his career, the Crimson Tide advanced to four straight NCAA Regionals including a Super Regional in 2010. He made the 2010 Southeastern Conference All-Tournament team, was named National Player of the Week by College Baseball 360 and garnered a spot on the Johnny Bench Award Watch List. He earned a degree in business management from Alabama. He was selected by the San Francisco Giants in the 33rd round of the 2011 Major League Baseball Draft.

Bennett is married to the former Ashley Skorcz. They have one son, Chandler (3).

Ryan GEARHEART

Strength & Conditioning
9th Season at UGA
(Middle Tennessee State '09)

As an Assistant Director of Strength and Conditioning, Ryan Gearheart works with the baseball and softball programs. He is in his ninth season with the Bulldogs.

Before coming to Georgia, Gearheart spent time working at Ohio State, Eastern Michigan, and Kent State. He has worked with baseball since 2010 while serving in the role as a Graduate Assistant at Eastern Michigan. After his time at Eastern, Gearheart was hired by Coach Scott Stricklin at Kent State. In his first year, KSU earned its first appearance in the College World Series in school history. While at KSU, Gearheart also served as a nutritional specialist for multiple athletic teams. His work experience also includes a stint at D1 Sports Training in Nashville, Tenn., where he was a facility coordinator/head speed and strength coach.

A native of Columbia, Tenn., he earned a bachelor's degree in Exercise Science from Middle Tennessee State in 2009 and a master's degree in Sport Management from Eastern Michigan in 2013. He has certifications as a Strength and Conditioning Coach (SCCC), Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS), Level 1 Nutritionist (Pn1), USA Olympic Weight Lifting (USAW-SPL1), Speed and Explosion for Team Sports (NASE), and Functional Range Conditioning Mobility Specialist (FRCms).

During his time at UGA, Gearheart has trained athletes for and been a part of the 2014 national championship swimming and diving program, three softball College World Series appearances (2016, 2018 and 2021), and two baseball teams that have earned top eight national seeds.

Gearheart works with former UGA baseball and now professional baseball players helping them with their off-season training programs. He also serves as the Internship Director for the strength and conditioning department.

Gearheart is married to the former Paige Herring of Birmingham, Ala., who also works for UGA as an Assistant Athletic Trainer for the swimming and diving program.

They have two daughters, Peyton (5) and Taylor (1).

Tatum HODGE

Director of Baseball Operations
6th Season at UGA
(Clemson '02)

Tatum Hodge is in her first year as the director of baseball operations and her sixth year overall as a member of the University of Georgia baseball program. Hodge began as an administrative assistant in July of 2016. She became the coordinator of athletic operations in 2019, organizing team travel, overseeing the program's budget and serving as a liaison to the lettermen and the families of the student-athletes.

Also, she plans special events, assists the coaching staff in their day-to-day tasks and is the primary team contact with all university support staff including the business office, facility services, marketing, compliance and the ticket office. In July of 2021, she moved into her current role as director of baseball operations.

Hodge earned a bachelor's degree from Clemson University where she was a four-year letterwinner on the soccer team from 1998-2001. She earned a master's degree from Charleston Southern University in 2005. Hodge spent 11 years coaching soccer with stints at Alabama, Clemson, Charleston Southern and Converse College.

A native of Greenville, S.C., Hodge and her husband Bo have two children, Harper (5) and Harrison (3).

Zach ADAMS

Associate Athletic Trainer
2nd Season at UGA
(Alabama '09)

Zach Adams joined the UGA Athletic Association's Sports Medicine staff in March 2021 as an associate athletic trainer. His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the Georgia Baseball program.

Adams came to Georgia after spending eight years at the College of Charleston, where he oversaw the sports medicine coverage for the baseball team. Prior to working with the Cougars, Adams worked at the University of North Georgia in Dahlonega, Ga., overseeing the medical care for their baseball team for two seasons.

A native of Cullman, Ala., Adams has been a certified athletic trainer since 2009. He graduated with a M.S. in Sport Management from Florida State University in 2011 and a B.S. in Athletic Training from the University of Alabama in 2009.

Adams is married to the former Jensine Jernigan of Powder Springs GA. Zach and Jensine have a daughter, Kennedy.

Nelson WARD

Player Development Coordinator
3rd Season at UGA
(Georgia '21)

After spending two seasons as a student assistant at Georgia, former Bulldog infielder Nelson Ward was named the director of player development for the Bulldog baseball program in July of 2021.

Following a six-year career in professional baseball, Ward returned to Georgia for the 2020 and 2021 seasons. He assisted Brock Bennett with the infielders while completing his degree in human development and family science.

Ward will direct the analytics efforts in preparing for each opponent and also will be helping the players improve their performance on the field.

A three-year starting infielder for Georgia from 2012-14, Ward played in 149 games and posted a career .301 batting average. A native of Marietta and product of Lassiter High School, Ward started his first two seasons at second base for Georgia. In 2013, he set a school record for highest fielding percentage by a second baseman, posting a .987 mark. He served as the Bulldog shortstop and co-captain in 2014 when he hit .306 with a team-best 34 runs and 33 RBI.

A 12th round draft pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2014, he enjoyed a breakout season in 2015 with Bakersfield in the California League, batting .282 with 12 doubles, six triples, seven home runs and 39 RBI. The Mariners included Ward in a trade to San Diego for pitcher Joaquin Benoit. Ward played the next two years in Double-A with San Antonio and then Arkansas in the Texas League before electing free agency. After spending two years playing in the Independent Leagues, Ward returned to UGA in 2020.

Ward is married to the former Emily Quam of Denton, Texas. She is a teacher in the Clarke County School system.

Robert TYLER

Student Assistant
1st Season at UGA

Former Georgia pitcher Robert Tyler returns to the Bulldogs in 2022 as a student assistant coach as he completes his degree in Sport Management.

In his Bulldog career, Tyler went 10-10 with a 3.62 ERA and 182 strikeouts in 179 innings. After three seasons at UGA, Tyler became the 10th Bulldog in school history to be a first round selection when the Colorado Rockies drafted him with the 38th overall pick of the 2016 MLB Draft.

A 6-4 right-hander from Cordele, Ga., he spent four years in the Rockies organization before arm trouble ended his career, and he retired in January of 2020.

Tyler is married to the former Georgia All-America softball pitcher Chelsea Wilkinson. She is in her first season as an assistant softball coach for the Bulldogs.

Home Runs For Hometown Rivals Special Olympics Baseball Game

Each year, the University of Georgia baseball team participates in various community service events. In eight of the past 10 years, Bulldog student-athletes from various sports have staged a baseball game at Foley Field featuring Special Olympic players. The game was canceled in 2020-21 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The fundraiser benefits Athens-Clarke County Special Olympics. The event is billed as "Home Runs for Hometown Rivals" and features a game between special needs Clarke-County athletes from the Westside of Athens versus Eastside players. Sometimes rain forces the event indoors, but a good time is still had by all.

The unique event features pregame ceremonies, introductions and the student-athletes help the participants swing bats and run the bases. The event has raised more than $2,000 annually through ticket sales, concessions, donations and corporate sponsorships.

Dual-Threat Dawgs

In the modern era of Georgia Baseball, there have been a handful of two-way Bulldogs. In fact, 3B/Closer Aaron Schunk was honored as the 2019 John Olerud Award winner by the College Baseball Foundation as the nation's top two-way player after being a finalist for the award in 2018. Tucker Bradley (right) in 2020 was the last Bulldog to excel as an outfielder and relief pitcher. In 2021, Luke Wagner spent most of the season as a pitcher but did play some in the outfield.

One of the greatest dual-threat Bulldogs was All-American LHP/DH Derek Lilliquist. A first round draft pick of Atlanta in 1987 (6th overall), he spent eight years pitching in the Majors and then served as the pitching coach for the St. Louis Cardinals and Washington Nationals.

Here's a look at a few of the top two-way Bulldogs since Lilliquist who finished his Bulldog career with a .318 batting average, 35 home runs, 135 RBI plus went 31-12 with a 3.30 ERA in 316 innings pitched.

Stinson Participated In 2021 NCAA Leadership Forum

Josh Stinson represented the Southeastern Conference at the NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Forum this past November in Houston. Stinson and Kinsey Goelz (Florida softball) were the two student-athletes the SEC selected after displaying outstanding leadership among their peers, institutions, and communities.

Created in 1997, the NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Forum has served as a life-changing experience for more than 5,000 student-athletes who have grown personally and professionally because of their attendance. They gain leadership skills, a refined understanding of the relationship among personal values, core beliefs and behavioral styles. In short, the forum serves an opportunity for college athletes, coaches, and administrators to collectively learn about themselves and grow as the next generation of leaders. Stinson was the first Bulldog representative since 2017 when Ryan Peppenhorst (track & field and cross country) was chosen by the league office.

University of Georgia student-athletes have a tremendous championship tradition to uphold. They carry the spirit and the pride for all students, alumni and supporters of UGA. The tradition of athletic and academic excellence at UGA is made possible by scholarships that provide these young people the opportunity to become successful, well-educated citizens, distinguished alumni and supporters of UGA.

A donor may endow a named scholarship for a UGA student-athlete with a gift of $200,000. Although the donor cannot select the specific scholarship recepients, he or she can designate his/her support to a specific sport.Currently, there are six baseball scholarship endowments.

For more information about the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program, the Coaching Endowment program or other giving opportunities, please contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at (877) 423-2947.

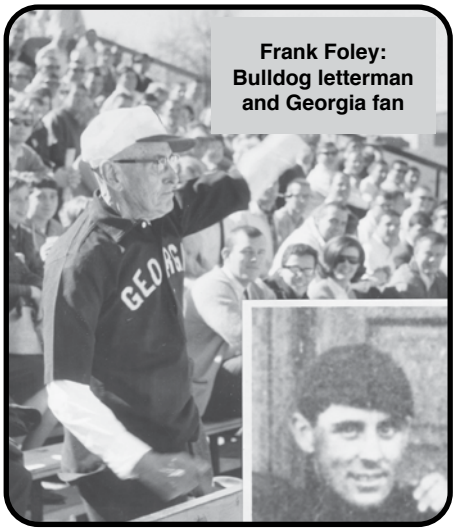
The Garden Club Terrace

A special dedication ceremony took place on April 2, 2016 in the right field fan area of Foley Field when it was officially named "The Garden Club Terrace." This honors former Athletic Director of Administration Reid Parker, former Bulldog golf coach Dick Copas, and former Faculty Athletic Representative Dr. Bill Powell.

This trio of remarkable men served the University of Georgia, the UGA Athletic Association, and the Athens community for more than 30 years. They called themselves "The Garden Club" for their informal meetings.A permanent plaque honoring the trio was unveiled that day (at right).

It is located by the right field fence and features Parker, Copas and Powell. Members of the Parker, Copas and Powell families, along with J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity were in attendance at the dedication ceremony. Then, they all cheered on the Bulldogs to a 12-4 win over No. 21 Alabama.



Frank Foley: Bulldog letterman and Georgia fan

Judge Frank Foley is considered one of Georgia's all-time greats for his contributions both on and off the field. Foley was a part of the 1908 Southern championship team that recorded a mark of 20-2.

He was a distinguished alumnus who is remembered by many as a kind and caring gentleman. His enthusiasm for the University of Georgia was second to none.

A $12 million project known as the "Foley Field Revival" was completed in January of 2015 and included a new locker room. The Foley family of Columbus, Ga. is synonymous with Georgia Baseball. They provided the lead gift which provided the foundation for this latest stadium renovation. On Opening Day of 2015, Frank D. Foley III (above middle) was recognized and received a Bulldog jersey from UGA President Jere W. Morehead and J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Greg McGarity.

Home of The Bulldogs

Foley Field has served as Georgia's home since 1966, and the stadium was constructed in 1990. The Foley family of Columbus is synonymous with Georgia baseball.

The large-scale measures of the 2015 revival included the following: Redesigning the stadium's main entrance, additional restrooms and concession areas, an expanded press box, club-level and field-level seating, improvements to the dugouts, Georgia's locker room and team lounge, training room and batting cages. In 2013, improvements to Foley Field included the right field area formerly known as "Kudzu Hill," (now the Garden Club Terrace), the installation of a new high-definition video scoreboard and new trees behind the outfield fence.

Georgia did not field a team in 1944-45 due to World War II.*

Before Foley Field

The first home for Georgia baseball was Herty Field from 1886 until 1911. Then, it was Sanford Field (below) until 1943. Pond Lippett threw the first no-hitter at home in Georgia history, blanking Pittsburgh 6-0 in 1920. Fred Sale pitched a perfect game at Sanford Field in 1923, a 4-0 win over Virginia. It was the first perfect game in Bulldog history and one of only two to date.

After World War II, the Diamond Dogs played on a field with no name located on "Ag. Hill," where Stegeman Coliseum is today. When construction for the Coliseum began in 1962, Georgia moved to its freshman field, which is next to where the Butts-Mehre building is now. In 1966, Georgia moved to its current location, and two years later, it was named Foley Field. On May 5, 1990, a $3.5 million refurbished Foley Field was dedicated and the latest upgrades came in 2015.

Season Ends When Bulldogs Left Out Of NCAA Tournament

The 2021 Georgia Bulldogs found themselves "on the bubble" to make the NCAA Tournament according to the experts that predict the field of 64. Then on Selection Monday, there was no joy in Athens as the Bulldogs saw their season end after not receiving a bid.

Georgia posted a 31-25 mark that included going 1-2 at the SEC Tourament. The Bulldogs finished 8-13 against the nation's top 25 including a road series win over then top-ranked Vanderbilt. Georgia closed the season with a brutal stretch with road series against No. 1 Arkansas and No. 7 Florida and finished at home against No. 11 Ole Miss. A banged-up squad managed to go 3-6 in that span, and ultimately that proved to be not good enough. Georgia ended league play with a 13-7 record.

"When you're on the bubble, every team has an argument for and against," said Georgia's Ike Cousins head baseball coach Scott Stricklin. "The goal is not to be on the bubble. When you leave it in the hands of the committee, anything can happen, and that's what we saw."

Georgia displayed tremendous grit during the 2021 campaign after injuries and illnesses decimated the pitching staff. Ultimately, the Bulldogs leaned on 10 freshmen including Liam Sullivan (1-2, 3.99), Luke Wagner (3-3, 4.58) and Freshman All-SEC Jaden Woods (4-1, 4.58, 1 SV).

Georgia's freshmen pitchers combined to go 14-10 with five saves in 29 starts with a 4.58 ERA. In 222 innings, they allowed 113 earned runs with 134 walks and 229 strikeouts.

Out of the projected starters, sophomore Jonathan Cannon was the only one who finished the year in the rotation. Ryan Webb, a preseason All-American had his first start delayed until Feb. 27 due to an illness and then was lost for the season in early May due to an elbow injury). Cannon, who was a returning Freshman All-American, had his first start delayed until March 9 due to an illness. Opening Day starter C.J. Smith was limited to three appearances and then missed the rest of the season with an arm injury. Garrett Brown, Will Childers, Logan Moody and Patrick Holloman all missed the entire season.

Then down the stretch, Georgia's offense lost two of its top veteran run producers in senior RF Cole Tate (.344-10-33), who was on pace for the team's Triple Crown, and graduate OF/INF Riley King (.261-6-34). Tate was hit by a Hunter Barco pitch in the ankle against Florida on May 15th and played just one inning the rest of the season.

Tate tried to go against #11 Ole Miss on May 20 and went 0-for-1 to end a 28-game on base streak and 11-game hitting streak, both career highs. King was bothered by a sore knee that sidelined him for four of the final nine games. He did start on Senior Day and went 2-for-3 with 3 RBI in a 13-2 win over No. 11 Ole Miss. One of the team's top hitters, Josh McAllister (.333-9-29), missed a total of 15 games due to a hamstring issue.

The top freshman hitter was DH/C Corey Collins (.283-8-37) who joined Woods on the Freshman All-SEC Team. He finished the season on an eight-game hitting streak and batted .414 (12-for-29) with three doubles, a triple, a home run and five RBI in that stretch.

Memorable Performances In 2021

◆ Redshirt sophomore LHP Ben Harris (4-2 2.33 ERA, 3 SV) and freshman Jaden Woods (4-1, 4.58 ERA, 1 SV) were pivotal members of the bullpen. Harris inherited 15 runners and none scored! Woods let just one of nine score.

Ben Harris (4-2, 2.33 ERA, 3 SV, 66 K, 38.2 IP) signed with the Los Angeles Dodgers after being drafted in the eighth round.

In SEC action, Harris went 3-2 with a 2.89 ERA and three saves in 12 relief outings, limiting opponents to a .106 batting average while Woods was 3-1 with one save and a 4.85 ERA in SEC play.

◆ Twice in 2021 Georgia has hit Back-to-Back-to-Back Home Runs and before then, the last time tit happened once was 1987! In 2021, Georgia did it against Lipscomb on March 12 (Connor Tate, Riley King and Josh McAllister) as part of a 10-0 victory. Then on Apr. 8 at #1 Vanderbilt, the Bulldogs did it again, this time it was Tate, King and Garrett Blaylock as part of a 14-2 rout.

◆ On March 15, Corey Collins earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors. He batted .444 (8-for-18) with two doubles, two home runs, five runs scored and nine RBI in a 4-0 week. He posted an .889 SLG% and .500 OB%.

◆ Redshirt junior OF Connor Tate led the Bulldog attack against the top-ranked Commodores, batting .583 (7-for-12) with two doubles, three home runs and six RBI. He was named a National Player of the Week by Collegiate Baseball, and he was the SEC Player of the Week.

◆ Sophomore RHP Jonathan Cannon was named the NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week and the SEC Pitcher of the Week after he tossed a career-high seven shutout innings with nine strikeouts and no walks in clinching an SEC road series over No. 1 Vanderbilt in April.

◆ Against #1 Vanderbilt's vaunted pitching staff that led the nation with a 2.31 ERA, Georgia slugged .585 with 9 HRs in winning that road series. Georgia's staff posted a 2.77 ERA and registered 42 Ks against the league's best offense that ranked second nationally in slugging percentage at .544.

◆ Senior Cole Tate tied a school record with a pair of triples in a game, helping Georgia to a 7-5 road win in 10 innings over Missouri on Apr. 24. Tate provided a go-ahead two-run triple in the 10th against the Tigers. He became the first Bulldog with two triples in a game since 2010 when Zach Cone did it versus Ga. Tech. Tate became just the seventh Bulldog to accomplish that feat.

◆ Freshmen LHPs Charlie Goldstein (@ Kennesaw) and Liam Sullivan (@ #1 Arkansas) pitched an "Immaculate Inning," that is they needed just nine pitches total to retire the first three hitters they faced.

Bulldogs In The MLB Draft

◆ The 2021 Major League Baseball was 20 rounds, and the Bulldogs had a pair of selections. Senior pitcher Ryan Webb, who was a preseason All-American, saw his year end early due to elbow surgery. However the Cleveland Indians liked his potential and drafted him in the fourth round. In the eighth round, the Los Angeles Dodgers selected and signed pitcher Ben Harris. The Bulldogs extended their string to 49 straight seasons with at least one player signing a contract.

Record 27 Bulldogs Earn Academic Honors

◆ A total of 18 Bulldogs earned a spot on the SEC Academic Spring Honor Roll and nine made the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll to give Georgia a school record 27 baseball honorees.

The veteran Bulldogs were: Ben Anderson, Jonathan Cannon, Ryland Goede, Charlie Goldstein, Kameron Guidry, Ben Harris, Randon Jernigan, Riley King, Joshua McAllister, Mason Meadows, Bryce Melear, Logan Moody, Darryn Pasqua, Michael Polk, C.J. Smith, Josh Stinson, Cole Tate and Connor Tate. The first-year Bulldogs to make the honor roll were: Dwight Allen II, Hank Bearden, Collin Caldwell, Max DeJong, Fernando Gonzalez, Parks Harber, Will Pearson, Garrett Spikes and Liam Sullivan.

Bulldog Award Recipients

◆ The Scholar-Athlete Award for the player with the highest GPA and best year was earned by King who was one of nine Bulldogs to earn their degree.

◆ The Gordon Beckham MVP Award went to outfielder Connor Tate and pitcher Ben Harris as they led the offense and pitching staff.

◆ The Bert Kizer Award for the top first-year player on and off the field went to Jaden Woods.

Note: In 1987, Georgia finished the regular season with the best SEC mark at 18-8 but the SEC title went to league tournament winner Miss. State. MSU went 4-0 in the tournament after going 13-13 during the year. Starting in 1988, the SEC title went to the regular season champion and the tournament winner received the league's automatic NCAA bid.

Note: Georgia has won five SEC Eastern Division titles (1955, 1975, 2001, 2004 and 2008). The SEC Championship format has varied since the incepetion of the league in 1933. Some years, the SEC has had divisions. In 1977, the league began holding an SEC Tournament following the regular season.

THIS IS SEC BASEBALL

The Southeastern Conference, with its storied 88-year history of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition in baseball of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Arkansas claimed the 2021 SEC regular-season title after going 22-8 in league action. Also, the Razorbacks won the 2021 SEC Tournament title over Tennessee in Hoover, Ala.

The SEC led all conferences with nine teams in the 2021 NCAA Tournament, and Mississippi State claimed the league's seventh national title in 12 years, beating Vanderbilt in the CWS Finals. An SEC squad has appeared in the CWS 35 of the last 36 years when it was held (It was canceled in 2020 due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic).

An SEC team has made the CWS Championship series annually from 2008-2015 along with 2017-2019 and then again in 2021.

Four SEC players were selected in the first round of the 2021 MLB Draft. The SEC has now had a first round MLB selection each year since 1991 and 143 total in the first round during that time.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2020 college baseball season was canceled right before the SEC schedule was slated to start. In fact, the SEC Opening Weekend would've featured No. 2 Georgia at No. 1 Florida. The pandemic caused the 2020 MLB Draft to be shortened to five rounds (down from 40) plus the minor league season was canceled. Still, the SEC had nine players selected in the first round including four of the top six: Arkansas' Heston Kjerstad (No. 2-Baltimore), Texas A&M's Asa Lacy (No. 4-Kansas City), Vanderbilt's Austin Martin (No. 5-Toronto) and Georgia's Emerson Hancock (No. 6-Seattle).

Did You Know?

• Georgia won the first baseball national title for the SEC in 1990 while LSU has collected six crowns since then (1991, '93, '96, 1997, 2000, '09), South Carolina (2010, '11) and Vanderbilt (2014, '19) have two while Florida (2017) and Miss. State (2021) have one.

• There have been eight runner-up finishes: Georgia (2008), Florida (2011), South Carolina (2012), Miss. State (2013), Vanderbilt (2015 & 2021), LSU (2017) and Arkansas (2018).

• Three student-athletes from the SEC were named to the 2021 Academic All-America Division I baseball team as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). Also of note in 2020, Georgia's Emerson Hancock was named a First Team Academic All-American.

• The 2021 Major League Baseball All-Star Game rosters included 11 players from SEC institutions including Georgia's Jared Walsh (Los Angeles Angels).

The SEC Player of the Year began in 1993; the others followed: SEC Pitcher of the Year (2003), SEC Freshman of the Year (2000) and SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year (2004).

In 2008, Georgia became the first school in SEC history to sweep the SEC Player of the Year, Pitcher of the Year, Scholar Athlete of the Year and Coach of the Year awards. Gordon Beckham won the Player and Scholar Athlete awards while Joshua Fields was named the league's top pitcher and David Perno was the Coach of the Year.

SEC ACADEMIC HONOR ROLL (Starting In 1984-Present)

In 1984, the SEC developed the Academic Baseball Honor Roll to recognize those athletes who had a 3.0 grade point average (either cumulative or during the past year), and had 24 semester or 26 quarter hours countable toward a degree. Prior to the 1996-97 season, the SEC dropped the requirement of earning a letter for that season. Starting in 2002, the recipients were chosen from the previous calendar year. A total of 148 Bulldogs have been honored 266 times.

*Note: When the draft began in 1965, there were three phases. The winter session was phased out in 1986 and the secondary in 1987; SP=Secondary Phase; FA=Free Agent; Davis left UGA after one season and played at Manatee JC in 1981; DNS=did not sign and returned to UGA.

A total of 39 former Bulldogs have reached the Major League level. It began with Claud Derrick for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and continued in 2021 with Kyle Farmer, Jared Walsh and Alex Wood. Walsh was the latest Bulldog to make his debut, getting the promotion in May of 2019. Also of note, there have been six UGA students who never lettered for Georgia but went on to become major league ballplayers: Bill Calhoun (1913), Hal Epps (1938, '40, '43-44), Jack Fisher (1959-69), Ralph Head (1923), Tully Sparks (1897, '99-1910) and Jon Warden (1968).

Looking back in MLB history, Derrick played on Connie Mack's World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911 and, while recovering from a broken ankle in Baltimore in 1912, he was the first roommate of a rookie pitcher named George Herman "Babe" Ruth. Nolen Richardson, a Georgia standout in football and basketball in the 1920s, played six years in the majors and returned to coach the Bulldogs in 1951. Johnny Rucker was featured in LIFE as a promising rookie in 1940.

While many Bulldogs enjoyed success throughout their career, one who stands out is Spurgeon "Spud" Chandler. Chandler was a part of seven World Series teams for the New York Yankees, including winners of six championships. Actually, he first played in Yankee Stadium as a member of the Bulldog football team. Georgia defeated New York University 7-6 on Nov. 7, 1931. Following his graduation in 1932, the Carnesville, Ga., native spent five years in the minors before returning to Yankee Stadium as a major leaguer. In his 11-year career, his finest season came in 1943. He led the league in Wins, Earned Run Average and Complete Games, going 20-4 with a 1.64 ERA and 20 complete games. He went 2-0 with a 0.50 ERA in the 1943 World Series, winning game one and pitching a shutout in the clinching game five over St. Louis. Wood was part of the 2020 World Series Champion Los Angeles Dodgers.

Alex Wood helped San Francisco to a franchise record 107 wins and the 2021 National League West title.

MLB TRIVIA: Larry Littleton and former St. Louis Cardinal outfielder Michael Potter hold the MLB record for most career at bats by a non-pitcher without a hit. Littleton made the Indians 1981 team out of spring training. He made his debut in game two that season, pinch-hitting in the ninth inning. He grounded out to eventual Hall of Famer Robin Yount. His lone RBI came on a bases-loaded line out off Minnesota's Jerry Koosman that Mickey Hatcher ran down. Most of his at-bats came as a pinch-hitter, and he started just four games over a 45-day span.

Academic All-Americans
(voted on by *CoSIDA)

To be eligible to become a member of the Academic All-America team, a college scholar-athlete must be nominated by his sports information director, hold a minimum of 3.3 cumulative GPA on a 4.0 scale, be a starter or key reserve on the varsity and reached sophomore athletic and academic standing.

There are eight geographic districts across the country. Scholar-athletes must be first named to the All-District team and then they will be placed on the national ballot for consideration to determine the national Academic All-America Team.

GORDON BECKHAM MVP AWARD

Starting in 2014, the annual Most Valulable Player (MVP) Award was named in honor of one of UGA's greatest players, All-American Gordon Beckham. He earned Southeastern Conference Player of the Year as well as SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors in his career.

"Gordon possesses all the qualities a program is looking for in their most valuable player, and he continues to represent Georgia in a first class manner as a professional in the Major Leagues," said Ike Cousins Head Baseball Coach Scott Stricklin. "It's a tribute to how he valued the importance of excelling in the classroom and on the field as a Georgia Bulldog."

Beckham arrived at UGA in 2006 as an undrafted infielder and went on to establish himself as one of the best ever to wear the red and black. He was tabbed an All-American and an Academic All-American. He started all 197 games of his three-year career, leading Georgia to a pair of College World Series appearances including the 2008 CWS Finals.

He was a first round draft pick of the Chicago White Sox in 2008, made his MLB debut less then a year later and was named the 2009 American League Rookie of the Year by the MLB Players Association and The Sporting News.

USA BASEBALL TEAM

USA Baseball, based in Cary, N.C., is the national governing body of amateur baseball in the United States and a member of the United States Olympic Committee (USOC).

The organization selects, trains, and supports the USA Baseball Team and a Junior Team which participates in international competitions, including the Olympic Games and World Championships.

While the first official exhibition baseball game in the Olympics was a 1912 contest in Stockholm, Sweden, reports exist that an unrecognized baseball game was played at the 1904 Games in St. Louis, Mo. A number of single game exhibitions were also played at the 1936, 1952, 1956, and 1964 Olympic Games. The 1992 Games in Barcelona was the debut of baseball as a medal sport.

OLYMPIC TEAM

1936 Henry Wagnon, C (Bostwick, Ga.)

Wagnon was one of 22 delegates to the International Sports Congress whose members demonstrated American Games to other nations in Berlin. Although other countries had planned to send teams for the baseball tournament, none did. So, the USA squad split into two teams and played a night game before a world-record crowd reported to be over 125,000. The World Amateurs defeated the USA Olympics 6-5.

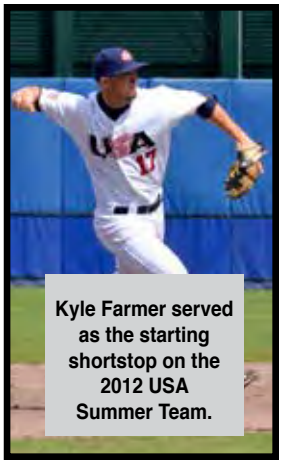
COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM (Summer)

1987 Cris Carpenter, RHP (Gainesville, Ga.)
(1.37 ERA, 5 SV, 59.1 IP, 69 Ks, USA Record 32 games pitched)
Team: 34-9, Silver Medal in Pan Am Games and Intercon. Cup

1989 Dave Fleming, LHP (Mahopac, N.Y.)
(*6-3, 6.32 ERA, 14 games, 8 starts), *TPosted a team-high 6 wins.
Team: 27-17, 6th in Intercontinental Cup (1-5)

1994 Brian Powell, RHP (Bainbridge, Ga.)
(2-2, 4.76 ERA, 9 games, 7 starts)
Opening Night Starter, beat Nicaragua 7-4 in Millington, Tenn.
Team: 24-13, 4-4 in World Championships, 6th Place

2002 Clint Sammons, C (Stone Mountain, Ga.)
(8 games, 5 starts before hit by a pitch in a game that broke his wrist and ended his tour. Perfect fielding percentage with 63 putouts, 11 assists, threw out 33% of runners, two pickoffs, batted .100-0-2 in 20 at bats);
Team: 23-7, 2nd at FISU World Championships

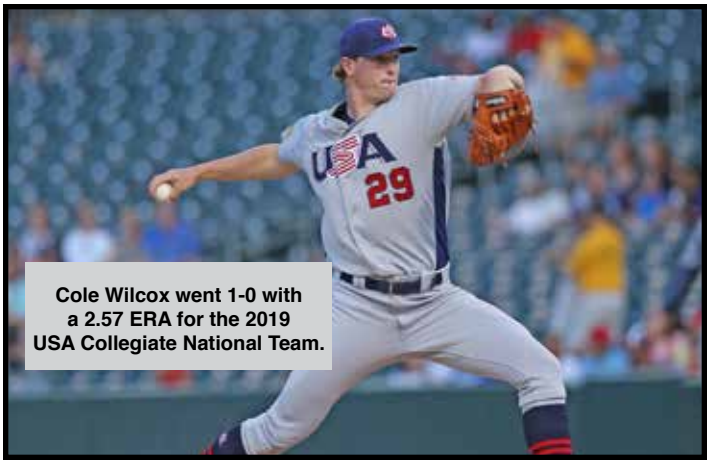


Kyle Farmer served as the starting shortstop on the 2012 USA Summer Team.

2012 Kyle Farmer, SS (Atlanta, Ga.)
(17 games, .250 with five doubles, eight RBI and a .967 FLDG.%)
Starting shortstop helped team go 12-5 and a bronze medal in the Netherlands. Four of team's five losses came to Cuba that had 12 World Baseball Classic veterans. Farmer had 3 RBI during medal round of the tournament. The team went 2-3 against Cuba in Havana and was the first U.S. squad to travel there in 16 years.

2015 Robert Tyler, RHP
(Cordele, Ga.)
(3-0, 1.00 ERA, 3 games, 2 starts)
Led Team USA with 3-0 record. Won both starts including Opening Day and the clinching-victory over Cuba in front of a sellout crowd of 10,352 fans in Charlotte at BB&T Ballpark as team went 9-8 overall.

2019 Cole Wilcox, RHP (Chickamauga, Ga.)
(1-0, 2.57 ERA, 4 games, 1 start)
Pitched three scoreless innings for a win over Cuba..Tossed 2.2 scoreless innings as part of a combined one-hit shutout versus Japan...Held opponents to a .217 batting average...Team went 8-6 overall with series wins over Chinese Taipei and Cuba.



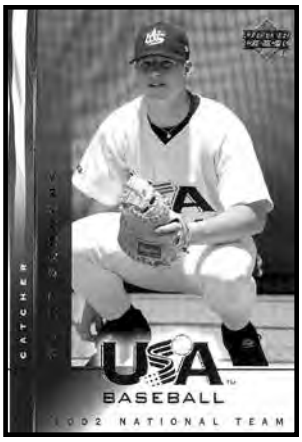
Cole Wilcox went 1-0 with a 2.57 ERA for the 2019 USA Collegiate National Team.

Robert Tyler went 3-0 with a 1.00 ERA to lead the 2015 USA Collegiate National Team.

2015 Team USA Flashback
Tyler Helps USA Clinch Series Over Cuba

A July 4th start against Cuba in front of a sellout crowd at BB&T Ballpark in Charlotte, Tyler pitched four scoreless innings in an 11-1 series-clinching victory in front of 10,352 fans. It matched the largest win over Cuba in national team history. He allowed only a two-out double in his final inning of work.

Georgia pitcher Brian Powell was a member of the 1994 USA squad that had six SEC players.



Clint Sammons was part of the 2002 USA Team.

The 1990 season will long be remembered as the finest ever produced at Georgia.

Catcher Terry Childers' play in the seventh preserved a 2-1 lead as Stan Payne and Dave Fleming combined to lead the Bulldogs to the national title.

Georgia was invited to Washington D.C., to discuss the strategy they used with President George Bush, a baseball letterman in his collegiate days at Yale.

Steve Webber compiled a 500-403-1 record in 16 seasons (1981-96) as the head coach at Georgia. He led the Bulldogs to two College World Series appearances (1987, '90), including a national championship in 1990. After his Georgia coaching career, Webber has served as a pitching coach in the following organizations: New York Yankees, San Diego Padres, Houston Astros and Atlanta Braves. He was inducted into UGA's Circle of Honor in 2018.

1990 College World Series All-Tournament Team

Pitchers (2): Dave Fleming and Mike Rebhan, Georgia;
Catcher: Michael Daniel, Okla. State; First Base: Doug Radziewicz, Georgia;
Second Base: Troy Paulsen, Stanford; Shortstop: Brad Beanblossom, Okla. State;
Third Base: Bobby Carlsen, Okla. State; Outfield (3): Jeffrey Hammonds, Stanford, Tim Clark, LSU, Jason Rychlick, Citadel; Designated Hitter: Lyle Mouton, LSU;
+1990 CWS MVP: Mike Rebhan, Georgia

+CWS Note: In 1996, the CWS celebrated its 50th anniversary. All-Decade teams were selected by a panel and Rebhan made it for the 1990s. In the series, he beat Stanford's Mike Mussina twice, going 2-0 with a 1.00 ERA and two complete games.

NATIONAL AWARDS

THE JOHN OLERUD AWARD

The John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award is presented annually by the College Baseball Foundation. Olerud, who was inducted into the National College Baseball Hall of Fame in 2007, was a standout pitcher and first baseman at Washington State from 1987 through 1989. The first award was presented in 2010.

Georgia's Aaron Schunk was the 2019 recipient after being a finalist in 2018. He is the only Bulldog to win the award. In his Bulldog career (2017-19), he played in 154 games with 153 starts. A second round draft pick of the Colorado Rockies in 2019, he batted .339 with 15 home runs and 58 RBI as a junior plus tallied 12 saves to go with a 1-2 mark and 2.49 ERA in 17 appearances.

Schunk ranks among the top six prospects in the Rockies organization. He worked out at Colorado's Alternate Training site during the summer of 2020 following an All-Star debut with the Boise Hawks in 2019.

THE GOLDEN SPIKES AWARD

The Golden Spikes award is given annually to the top amateur baseball player in America. Eight former Bulldogs have been nominated for this prestigious honor including first round picks Emerson Hancock (2020), Gordon Beckham (right) and Joshua Fields in 2008 and second round pick Rich Poythress in 2009. Hancock was a semifinalist in 2019. Hancock and Cole Wilcox made the 2020 preseason watch list, however the award was not presented due to the COVID-19 pandemic canceling much of the season.

Beckham was a finalist for the award while Fields and Poythress were semifinalists. In 1987, not only was it a banner year for the Bulldogs as a team, but also for some individuals. Pitchers Cris Carpenter and Derek Lilliquist were tabbed as nominees for the award. It marked only the second time that two teammates were nominated in the same year. In 1990 former Bulldog pitcher Dave Fleming, who led Georgia to its first-ever national championship, was nominated.

The winner is automatically enshrined in the United States Baseball Federation's Amateur Baseball Hall of Fame. His named is also added to the permanent Golden Spikes Award at the National Baseball Hall of Fame. In addition, the winner also becomes the USBF's nominee for the AAU's Sullivan Award, which goes to the nation's top amateur athlete.

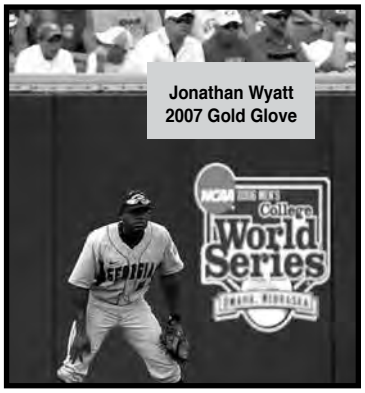
GOLD GLOVE AWARDS

2007: Jonathan Wyatt, OF
2008: Rich Poythress, 1B
2019: Cam Shepherd, SS

Beginning in 2007, the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) along with Rawlings Sporting Goods began a program where Rawlings Gold Glove Awards were presented to NCAA Division I players. Nomination and voting criteria are the same as the ABCA Rawlings All-Region and All-American Awards, which are collegiate baseball's oldest selections, dating back to 1949. The players and their schools each receive a Rawlings Gold Glove Award.

Georgia outfielder Jonathan Wyatt was one of the nine inaugural recipients in 2007. He led all SEC outfielders with a perfect 1.000 Fielding Percentage in 164 total chances in his final season with the Bulldogs. He was a 13th-round pick of the Chicago Cubs.



Jonathan Wyatt
2007 Gold Glove

Rich Poythress received national recognition for his stellar play at first base for the SEC champion Bulldogs in 2008, earning a Gold Glove Award. He recorded a .995 fielding percentage in 69 starts with a school record 55 assists to go with 535 putouts in helping the team reach the College World Series Finals. Poythress finished his career with a .993 Fielding Percentage (1323 PO, 127 A, 10 E). He was a second round pick of the Seattle Mariners in 2009.

Cam Shepherd earned a Gold Glove in 2019 after setting a school record with a .987 fielding percentage at shortstop. Shepherd became the first shortstop on the All-SEC Defensive Team to go the entire league schedule without an error. He has started every game at shortstop the past three seasons (2017-19), a span of 180 games. A 20th round pick of the Tampa Bay Rays in 2019, he opted to return for his senior year and then signed as a free agent with Atlanta in 2020.

THE BERT KIZER AWARD

The Bert Kizer Award is named annually to the Georgia baseball letterman, who in his first year, displayed exemplory achievement in the combined areas of academics, athletics and citizenship.

The award was established during the 1991 season. Bert Kizer was a loyal Georgia Baseball supporter for a number of years. In fact, his two sons, Bubba and Craig, both lettered for the Bulldogs. Bubba was an All-America infielder who recorded a career .346 batting average from 1976-78. Craig lettered in 1981-82 and posted a career pitching record of 6-2.

JIM UMBRICHT AWARD

The Jim Umbricht Award is given annually to the Georgia player considered the "most competitive" by the Bulldog coaching staff. The award is sponsored by former Georgia player Johnny Clifton (1951-53) of Atlanta.

Jim Umbricht was a two-sport great at the University of Georgia in the early 1950s. In 1952, he was named captain of both the Bulldog baseball and basketball teams, playing shortstop and guard, respectively. From Georgia, he went on to a successful professional baseball career. He spent time with the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Houston Colt .45s. He was part of the Pirates World Series Championship team in 1960. In 1963, he was named Major League Baseball's Comeback Player-of-the-Year. He died in 1964 at the age of 33 after a bout with cancer.

MORTON HODGSON: One of the Best Ever

Morton Hodgson (1906-09) not only was a starter for four years in baseball, he lettered in football, basketball and track. He was Georgia's first four-letter athlete. A hometown hero, he hit .333 on the 1908 championship squad that was considered one of the greatest teams ever fielded by the University. The pitching staff was so strong it shut out 12 opponents, six in succession. He was named to Grantland Rice's All-Southern team.

His sons were stellar athletes for the Bulldogs and two of his grandsons lettered in football under Coach Vince Dooley. He is the only Georgia player to have a son and two grandsons letter in football at Georgia.

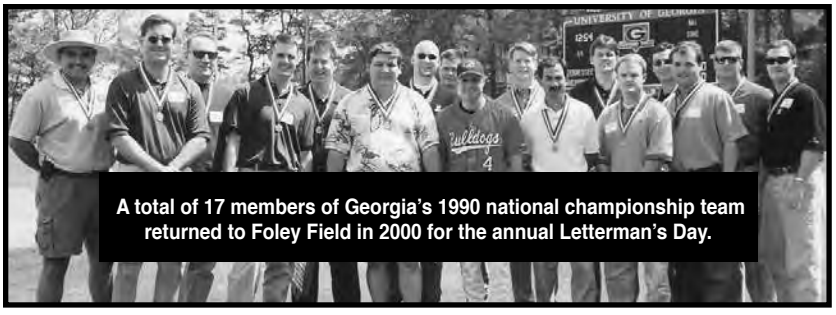
Georgia honored the memory of Bulldog great and 1990 CWS MVP Mike Rebhan after his tragic passing in 2019.



A total of 17 members of Georgia's 1990 national championship team returned to Foley Field in 2000 for the annual Letterman's Day.

Academic All-SEC Kevin Smith graduated in 2019.

Edwin Hill: 2019 Charley Trippi Distinguished Letterman's Award

For a former letterman who has made a commitment to Georgia Baseball, the community and UGA.

The 1975 Team: In Big Jim Whatley's "swan song" as the Bulldog baseball coach, Georgia captured the SEC Eastern Division title. The players included senior captain Phil Baker, All SEC outfielders Larry Littleton and Bubba Wilson and one of the top hitters in the SEC in Ted Dieter. On the mound, these Bulldogs were led by All-SEC hurlers Bill Ivie and Mickey Register along with Mike Keepers and Wayne LaHullier.

BULLDOG LORE

While C.E. Morris served as the coach for Georgia's first team in 1886, Hughie Jennings is credited with being the Bulldogs' first official coach. He played for 17 years in the Major Leagues while also managing the Detroit Tigers from 1907-20. He was the second shortstop and among the first 35 men elected to the Hall of Fame. Former Bulldog Claude Derrick began his career with the Philadelphia Athletics in 1909 and played on two World Championship teams in 1910 and 1911. In 1912 with Baltimore, Derrick was the first roommate of rookie George Herman Ruth, better known as "The Babe."

WEBBER JOINS CIRCLE OF HONOR IN 2018

The Circle of Honor is the UGA Athletic Association's all sports recognition program which is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary University of Georgia student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

Steve Webber, who is the winningest baseball coach in Georgia history with 500 victories between 1981 and 1996, was part of the Circle of Honor Class of 2018. He led Georgia to its first two College World Series appearances including winning the 1990 national championship, the first for the Southeastern Conference in the sport.

At the time of his induction, the native Iowan and graduate of Southern Illinois University, was just the fifth among all 79 inductees that are not UGA alumni.

A Legacy Of Strength

Bulldog standouts Chance Veazey and Johnathan Taylor were honored before the win over South Carolina on March 24, 2018, and a unique permanent display on the Foley Field concourse was unveiled celebrating "A Legacy of Strength."

Both of their baseball careers were cut short by life-altering accidents at UGA. Their ability to persevere serves an inspiration to all those who know them and their stories. Both graduated in 2013 and live and work in their Georgia hometowns: Veazey in Tifton and Taylor in Acworth. The display features augmented reality and its own app that fans can download on their mobile device titled "A Legacy of Strength."

Once you download the app, open it and point your camera at the display, then watch at both the story being told and the technology that makes what you're seeing possible.

In December of 2013, Bulldogs Johnathan Taylor, Brett DeLoach and Chance Veazey earned their degrees from UGA.

The Taylor and Veazey families along with several of their teammates, athletic trainer Mike Dillon and their head coach David Perno returned to UGA and Foley Field to honor Chance and JT in 2018.
